Pastor David Higa
God's Righteousness Revealed in Relationships
Romans 16:1-27

"Greet one another with a holy kiss. The churches of Christ greet you."
[Romans 15:20-21]

Here we are, at the end of our study of this great Romans Epistle. We have spent several months digging into fundamental doctrines of the Christian faith: God's Righteousness Revealed in Condemnation, Justification, Sanctification, and Sovereign Choice. You have probably grown weary with my review of these tenets of faith. But I truly believe that repetition is a key to insight and understanding.

Let's remember, too, that "faith without deeds is dead." After doctrine comes duty. Learning must translate to living. This has been the topic over the last few chapters: God's Righteousness Revealed in Transformed Living. It began with Rom 12:1: "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service."

We are Jesus' hands, feet, eyes, ears, and heart in this life of faith. We are His body in this dispensation of the church. Our reasonable response is to serve Him because of what He has done for us. It is our response to His grace. It is a high calling and yet a privileged one.

God's church is a wonderful, powerful, and unique work that spans nations, cultures, languages, and ages. "For He Himself is our peace, who has made both one, and has broken down the middle wall of separation" [Eph 2:14]. Jews and Gentiles; all walks of life; have become one in Christ, a mystery until the Cross of Calvary [ref. Eph 3:3-6]. There is unity in diversity and throughout geography [ref. Rom 15:14-33]. This morning Paul concludes by revealing unity amongst the saints; brothers and sisters in the Lord.

Twenty six people are specifically mentioned by name in Rom 16: Men and women, Jews and Gentiles, rich and poor, all working together toward the common cause of the Kingdom. It is a glorious work of the Father, through the Son, and in the power of the Holy Spirit. It is a work that we [the church] are a part of even this day.

Relationships are key; godly relationships in the pure love of the Spirit are the handles to the Kingdom. Yes, doctrine is important; but it is the exercising thereof through grace, in the purity of love, that does the work.
